Dear Idaho Potato Industry members

Below is a note from John Keeling, NPC, on the latest information regarding seed potato movement from Alberta, Canada.

The following table is what is currently on the APHIS web site regarding the importation of seed potatoes to the US from Canada. This table reflects the fact that seed exports to the US from Alberta are prohibited until the delimiting surveys, including trace forwards and tracebacks, are complete. Other provinces may export seed if they conduct tests of the fields in accordance with the Guidelines. That test is currently a full field survey at 1 pound of soil per acre. The International Science Panel report which is likely to recommend a larger sample size should be available by November 1. Then a discussion of next steps will have to occur within the US industry and within APHIS.
